

"Lord I Call..." Tone 2

Lord, I call upon You, hear me!
 Hear me, O Lord!
Lord, I call upon You, hear me!
 Receive the voice of my prayer,
 when I call upon You!
 Hear me, O Lord!

Let my prayer arise
 in Your sight as incense,
 and let the lifting up of my hands
 be an evening sacrifice!
Hear me, O Lord!

Lord, I call upon You, hear me. Hear me, O Lord.

Lord, I call upon You, hear me. Receive the voice of my prayer

when I call u - pon You. Hear me, O Lord.

Let my prayer a - rise in Your sight as in - cense and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sac - ri - fice. Hear me, O Lord.

v. (10) Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to Your name!

Come, let us worship the Word of God
begotten of the Father before all ages,
and incarnate of the Virgin Mary!
Having endured the Cross,
He was buried as He himself desired.//
And having risen from the dead, He saved me, an erring man.

Come, let us worship the Word of God begotten of the Father before all a - ges, and in - car - nate of the Vir - gin Ma - ry! Having en - dured the Cross

He was buried as He Him - self de - sired!

And, having risen from the dead, He saved me an err - ing man.

v. (9) The righteous will surround me; for You will deal bountifully with me.

Christ our Savior
nailed to the Cross the bond against us,
He voided it and destroyed the dominion of death.//
We fall down before His Resurrection on the third day.

Christ our Sa - viour nailed to the Cross the bond a - gainst us,

He void - ed it and destroyed the do - min - ion of death!

We fall down before His Resurrection on the third day!

v. (8) Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice!

With the Archangels
 let us praise the Resurrection of Christ!
 He is our Savior, our Redeemer.
 He is coming with awesome glory and mighty power//
 to judge the world which He made.

With the arch - an - gels let us praise the resur - rec - tion of Christ!

He is our Sa - viour, our Re - deem - er! He is coming with awesome glory and mighty po - wer to judge the world which He made!

v. (7) Let Your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!

The Angel proclaimed You
 the crucified and buried Master.
 He told the women: "Come, see the place where He lay!
 He is risen as He said,
 for He is almighty."
 We worship You, O only immortal One.//
 Have mercy on us O Christ, the Giver of life!

The angel pro - claimed You the crucified and buried Ma - ster. He told the women: "Come see the place where He lay! He is ri - sen as He said for He is Al - migh - ty." We wor - ship You, O only Im - mor - tal One.

Have mercy on us, O Christ, the Gi - ver of life.

v. (6) In the Sixth Tone, If You, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with You.

Today, she who gave birth to Life, the all-undefiled Theotokos, has passed over to everlasting life,
 granting mercy to the faithful.
 All creation now leaps for joy.
 The angelic assembly rejoices together,
 for they accompany the Queen, singing festive hymns.
 Her only Son and King of All makes her abode with Himself, // for she reigns as sovereign of all.

v. (5) For Your name's sake I have waited for You, O Lord, my soul has waited for Your word; my soul has hoped on the Lord.

Clouds bearing the spokesmen of God,
the Apostles who were gathered from all the ends of the earth, came to Zion to behold the holy dormition of the Mother of the Lord,
and to offer her enlightening words,
and wondrously to perform her burial;
for having given birth to the Lord she is a secure refuge for all the faithful,// and a mighty, divine and invincible protection on earth.

v. (4) From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch, let Israel hope on the Lord!

With splendor let us all keep festival on the divine dormition of her who is higher than all creatures.
Let us bring to her
all the glorious, bright, and divine gifts with which she is truly adorned:
serene faith and hope and love,
chastity, purity, and truth, in which she takes delight.
May she grant us also to be fellow sharers with her, //
and to inherit the Kingdom on high.

The image shows a musical score for a fifth voice part, likely a soprano or alto. It consists of five systems of music, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are written below the notes. The music is written in a simple, homophonic style with block chords and single notes. The lyrics are: "With splendor let us all keep fes - ti - val on the divine dormition of her who is higher than all crea - tures. Let us bring to her all the glorious, bright, and divine gifts with which she is tru - ly adorned: serene faith and hope and love, chastity, purity, and truth, in which she takes de-light. May she grant us also to be fellow shar-ers with her, and to inherit the King-dom on high." The score ends with a double bar line.

v. (3) In the Fourth Tone, For with the Lord there is mercy and with Him is plenteous redemption, and He will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

O Samuel, she who gave birth to you,
received you as a worthy fruit of prayer!
As she had promised, with her maternal hands
she gave you, a rightly acceptable gift, to God her Benefactor!

Therefore the grace of the Spirit rested upon you, causing you to grow in innocence,//
 and adorning you with wisdom, O glorious one!

O Samuel, she who gave birth to you, received you as a worthy fruit of prayer!
 As she had prom-ised, with her ma-ter-nal hands she gave you, a rightly ac-cept-a-ble gift to God her Be - ne - fac - tor! Therefore the grace of the Spirit rest-ed up-on you, causing you to grow in in - no - cence, and adorning you with wisdom, O glo - ri - ous one!

v. (2) Praise the Lord, all nations! Praise Him, all peoples!

You were invested as a priest with sacred chrism
 and revealed to be a prophet who foresaw things to come!
 At the command of God, you foretold the future and anointed a king.
 You judged with justice the people of Israel who ever sinned and withdrew themselves from their God, // truly-wondrous Samuel, the blessed bearer of God!

v. (1) For His mercy is abundant towards us; and the truth of the Lord endures for ever.

Putting aside the gloom and weight of the flesh
 you now behold Him Whom you desired,
 not in a mirror darkly or in shadows, as before,
 but face to face!

You rejoice as you go about the heavens, most honored Prophet, peer of the other Prophets of God, //
 conversor with the righteous and sharer in the portion of the Angels!

You rejoice as you go about the heavens, most honored Prophet,

 conversor with the righteous and sharer in the portion of the Angels!

In the Sixth Tone, Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

At your deathless Falling Asleep,
 O Theotokos, Mother of Life,
 clouds caught the Apostles up into the air,
 and though they were dispersed throughout the world,
 they were brought into a single choir beside your most pure body.
 As they reverently buried you, they cried out, singing Gabriel's words:
 "Rejoice, O full of grace!
 Virgin Mother, without bridegroom,
 the Lord is with you!"//
 With them implore Him, as your Son and our God, that our souls may be saved!

At your deathless Fall - ing Asleep, O Theotokos, Moth - er of Life,

 With them implore Him, as your Son and our God, that our souls may be saved!

In the Second Tone, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

The shadow of the Law passed when grace came;
 as the bush burned, yet was not consumed,
 so the Virgin gave birth, yet remained a Virgin.
 The righteous Sun has risen instead of a pillar of flame//
 Instead of Moses, Christ, the Salvation of our souls.

When the Translation of your immaculate body was being prepared,
the Apostles surrounded your deathbed and looked on you with trembling.
They gazed at your body and were seized with awe,
while Peter cried out to you with tears:
"O Virgin, I see you, who are the life of all, lying here out stretched,
and I am struck with wonder;
for the Delight of the life to come made His dwelling in you.
But fervently implore your Son and God, O immaculate Lady,//

that your people may be kept safe from harm!"

Epistle

(141) – 1 Corinthians 9:2-12

Brothers and sisters, you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. My defense to those who question me is this: Have we no right to eat and to drink? Do we not have the right to take along a sister – a wife – even as the rest of the apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Kephas? Or is it only Barnabas and I who are obliged to work? What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock and does not drink from the flock’s milk? Do I speak these things according to human ways? Does not the law say the same thing as well? For it is written in the law of Moses, “You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain.” Is it for the oxen that God shows care, or does he say these things for our benefit? Yes, it was written for us, because whoever plows should plow in hope, and whoever threshes in hope should have a share in his hope. If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it such a great thing if we reap your material things?

If others partake of this right over you, should we not even more? Nevertheless, we did not use this right, but we bear all things, so that we may cause no hindrance to the Good News of Christ.

Priest: + Peace be to you.

Gospel

(77) – Matthew 18:23-35

The Lord said this parable: the Kingdom of Heaven is like a king who wanted to settle his accounts with his slaves. When he began the settlement, someone was brought in who owed him ten thousand talents. But because the slave could not pay, his lord gave orders that he be sold, with his wife, children, and all that he had, so that payment may be made. At this, the slave fell down on his knees before him, saying: ‘Lord, have patience with me, and I will repay you all!’ The lord of that slave, moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.

However, that slave went out and found one of his fellow slaves who owed him one hundred denarii. He grabbed him and took him by the throat, saying: ‘Pay me what you owe!’

And so, his fellow slave fell down at his feet and begged him, saying:

‘Have patience with me, and I will repay you!’ But the first man would not have compassion but went off and had him cast into prison, until he should pay back what was due. When his other fellow slaves saw what had been done, they were extremely distressed and came to their lord to report all that had taken place. Then his lord summoned the first slave and said to him, 'You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. Should you not also have had mercy on your fellow slave, even as I had mercy on you?' His lord was angry and delivered him to the jailers until he would pay all that was due. This is how my heavenly Father will also treat you if you do not each forgive each other their trespasses from your hearts."

Instead of "It is truly meet ...," we sing:

Tone 1

Refrain: The Angels, as they looked upon the Dormition of the Virgin, were struck with wonder, seeing how the Virgin went up from earth to heaven.

Heirmos: The limits of nature are overcome in you, O Pure Virgin:
 for birthgiving remains virginal, and life is united to death;
 a virgin after childbearing and alive after death,
 you ever save your inheritance, O Theotokos.

The limits of nature are o - ver - come in you, O Pure Vir - gin:
 for birth - giving re - mains vir - gi - nal and life is u - ni - ted to death!
