

"Lord I Call..." – Tone 3

Reader: In the Third Tone, Lord, I call upon You, hear me!

Lord, I call upon You, hear me.
Hear me, O Lord.
Lord, I call upon You, hear me.
Receive the voice of my prayer,
when I call upon You.
Hear me, O Lord.

Let my prayer arise
in Your sight as incense, and let the lifting up of my hands
be an evening sacrifice.
Hear me, O Lord.

Lord, I call upon You, hear me. Hear me, O Lord.

Lord, I call upon You, hear me, receive the voice of my prayer when I call u-pon You. Hear me, O Lord! Let my prayer a-rise in Your sight as in - cense, and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sac - ri - fice. Hear me, O Lord!

v. (10) Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to Your name!

Tone 3

(for the Resurrection)

By Your Cross, O Christ our Savior, death's dominion has been shattered;
the devil's delusion destroyed.

The race of men, being saved by faith, //
always offers You a song.

By Your Cross, O Christ our Sa - viour, death's dominion has been shat - tered;
the devil's de - lu - sion de - stroyed! The race of men being saved by faith, al - ways of - fers You a song!

v. (9) The righteous will surround me; for You will deal bountifully with me.

All has been enlightened by Your Resurrection, O Lord.

Paradise has been opened again. //

All creation, praising You, always offers You a song.

All has been enlightened by Your Resur - rec - tion, O Lord! Paradise has been o - pened a - gain. All creation, praising You, always of - fers You a song!

v. (8) Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice!

I glorify the power of the Father and the Son.
I praise the authority of the Holy Spirit:
the undivided, uncreated Godhead, //
the consubstantial Trinity which reigns forever.

I glorify the power of the Fa - ther and the Son! I praise the authority of the Holy Spi - rit! The undivided, uncreated God - head, the consubstantial Trinity which reigns for - e - ver!

v. (7) Let Your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!

We bow down in worship before Your precious Cross, O Christ,
and we glorify and praise Your Resurrection, //
for by Your wounds we have all been healed.

We bow down in worship before Your Precious Cross, O Christ,
and we glorify and praise Your Resur - rec - - - tion

for by Your wounds we have all been healed.

v. (6) If You, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with You.

We praise the Savior incarnate of the Virgin, for He was crucified for our sake and resurrected on the third day, // granting us great mercy.

We praise the Savior incarnate of the Vir - gin for He was crucified for our sake and resurrected on the third - day grant-ing us great-mer - cy.

v. (5) For Your name's sake I have waited for You, O Lord, my soul has waited for Your word; my soul has hoped on the Lord.

Christ descended to Hades proclaiming the glad tidings:
"Behold! Now I have triumphed!
I am the Resurrection, I will lead you out, //
for I have shattered the gates of death!"

Christ descended to Hades proclaiming the glad ti - dings. Behold! Now I have tri - umphed. I am the Resurrection, I will lead you out for I have shat - tered the gates of death.

v. (4) From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch, let Israel hope on the Lord!

Standing unworthily in Your most pure house, O Christ God,
 we offer our evening song, crying from the depths:
 "You Who enlightened the world by Your Resurrection on the third day, //
 O Lover of man, deliver Your people from the hand of Your enemies.

Standing unworthily in Your most pure house, O Christ God,

we offer our evening song cry - ing from the depths.

You Who enlightened the world by Your Resurrection on the third day,

O Lover of Man, deliver Your people from the hand of Your e - ne - mies.

v. (3) In the First Tone, For with the Lord there is mercy and with Him is plenteous redemption, and He will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

Tone 1 (Idiomela, from the Pentecostarion)

With Your pure hand, You created man;
 You came to heal the sick, O compassionate Christ.
 By Your word You raised the paralytic at the Sheep's Pool,

You cured the pain of the woman with the issue of blood.

You had mercy on the Canaanite woman's daughter.

You did not reject the request of the centurion.

Therefore we cry to You://

"Glory to You, O Almighty Lord!"

With Your pure hand, You cre - at - ed man;

You came to heal the sick, O com - pas - sion - ate Christ.

By Your word You raised the paralytic at the Sheep's Pool,

You cured the pain of the wom - an with the is - sue of blood.

You had mer - cy on the Canaanite wom - an's daugh - ter.

You did not reject the request of the cen - tu - ri - on.

There - fore we cry to You: "Glory to You, O Al - migh - ty Lord!"

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of eight systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The key signature is one flat (B-flat major or D minor), and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are printed below the vocal line of each system. The piano accompaniment features a simple harmonic structure with chords and moving lines in both hands.

v. (2) Praise the Lord, all nations! Praise Him, all peoples!

With Your pure hand, You created man;
You came to heal the sick, O compassionate Christ.
By Your word You raised the paralytic at the Sheep's Pool,
You cured the pain of the woman with the issue of blood.
You had mercy on the Canaanite woman's daughter.
You did not reject the request of the centurion.

Therefore we cry to You://

"Glory to You, O Almighty Lord!"

The musical score consists of seven systems, each with a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are: "With Your pure hand, You created man; You came to heal the sick, O compassionate Christ. By Your word You raised the paralytic at the Sheep's Pool, You cured the pain of the woman with the issue of blood. You had mercy on the Canaanite woman's daughter. You did not reject the request of the centurion." The piano accompaniment is a simple harmonic accompaniment with a steady bass line and chords in the treble.

There - fore we cry to You: "Glory to You, O Al - migh - ty Lord!"

v. (1) For His mercy is abundant towards us; and the truth of the Lord endures forever.

The Paralytic was like an unburied corpse.
 He saw You and shouted: "Lord, have mercy on me!
 My bed has become my grave! Why should I live?
 What use is the Sheep's Pool to me?
 I have no one to put me into the pool when the waters are stirred.
 I come to You, O Fountain of healing.
 Raise me up, that with all I may cry to You://
 'Glory to You, O Almighty Lord!'"

The Par - a - lyt - ic was like an un - bur - ied corpse.

I come to You, O Fountain of heal - - ing.

Raise me up, that with all I may cry to You: Glory to You, O Al-migh-ty Lord!

The musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature. It features a series of chords, primarily triads and dyads, with some eighth notes. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, featuring a steady bass line of quarter notes and some half notes.

In the Fifth Tone, Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

Tone 5

(from the Pentecostarion)

Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
 He came to the Sheep's Pool, called in Hebrew "Bethesda."
 It had five porches, each filled with a multitude of the sick, for at certain times an Angel of the Lord stirred up the water,
 and granted strength to those who approached in faith.
There the Lord saw a man who for many years had been afflicted.
 He said: "Do you want to be whole?"
 The sick man replied to the Lord:
 "I have no man to lower me into the pool when the water is stirred.
 I have spent all my wealth on physicians,
 but have not been granted mercy!"
 The Physician of souls and bodies said to him:
 "Take up your bed and walk!// Proclaim My power and great mercy to the ends of the earth!"

Tone 3*(Theotokion – Dogmatikon)*

How can we not wonder at your mystical childbearing, O exalted Mother?
 For without receiving the touch of man,
 you gave birth to a Son in the flesh, O immaculate Virgin.
 The Son born of the Father before eternity was born of you at the fullness of time, O honored Lady.
 He underwent no mingling, no change, no division,
 but preserved the fullness of each nature.
 Entreat Him to save the souls, O Lady and Virgin, and Mother,

*(Then the Paschal Stichera with their verses from Psalm 67/68, in Tone Five.)

v: Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered; let those who hate Him flee from before His face!

Today, a sacred Pascha is revealed to us:
 a new and holy Pascha,
 a mystical Pascha,
 a Pascha worthy of veneration,
 a Pascha which is Christ the Redeemer,
 a blameless Pascha,
 a great Pascha,
 a Pascha of the faithful, a Pascha which has opened to us the gates of Paradise,//
 a Pascha which sanctifies all the faithful.

v: As smoke vanishes so let them vanish; as wax melts before the fire!

Come from that scene, O women bearers of glad tidings,
 and say to Zion:
 "Receive from us the glad tidings of joy,
 of Christ's Resurrection!
 Exult and be glad,
 and rejoice, O Jerusalem, seeing Christ the King, Who comes forth from the tomb// like a bridegroom in procession!"

v: So the sinners will perish before the face of God. But let the righteous be glad!

The myrrh-bearing women,
 at the break of dawn, drew near to the tomb of the Life-giver.
 There they found an Angel sitting upon the stone.
 He greeted them with these words:
 "Why do you seek the Living among the dead?
 Why do you mourn the Incorrupt amid corruption?// Go, proclaim the glad tidings to His disciples!"

v: This is the day which the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

Pascha of beauty,
 the Pascha of the Lord,
 A Pascha worthy of honor has dawned for us.
Oh, Pascha!
Let us embrace each other joyously!
Pascha, ransom from affliction!
 For today, as from a bridal chamber,
Christ has shown forth from the tomb, and filled the women with joy saying://
 "Proclaim the glad tidings to the Apostles!"

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

Let God a - rise, let His e - ne-mies be scat - tered.

Tone 8

(from the Pentecostarion)

Solomon's porch was filled with the sick.
 In the middle of the feast,
 Christ found a man who had been paralyzed thirty-eight years.
 He shouted to him in a commanding voice: "Do you want to be healed?"
 The sick man replied: "Lord, when the water is stirred,
 I have no man to lower me into the pool."
 The Lord said to him:
 "Pick up your bed!
 Now that you are healed, see that you sin no more!"
 Show to us Your great mercy, O Lord, //

(Resurrection)

Priest: Let us attend! † Peace be unto all!

Reader: And with your spirit!

Priest: Wisdom!

Prokeimenon, Tone 1

Reader: The Prokeimenon, in the 1st Tone: Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us as we have set our hope on You!

Choir: Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us as we have set our hope on You, as we have set our hope on You!

Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us as we have set our hope on You,
as we have set our hope on You.

The first system of music consists of two systems of staves. The top system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The vocal line contains the lyrics "Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us as we have set our hope on You," with a double bar line after "us". The piano accompaniment consists of chords and single notes. The second system continues the vocal line with the lyrics "as we have set our hope on You." and the piano accompaniment.

Reader: Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous! Praise befits the just!

Choir: Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us as we have set our hope on You, as we have set our hope on You!

Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us as we have set our hope on You,
as we have set our hope on You.

The second system of music is identical in structure to the first, featuring a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are "Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us as we have set our hope on You," followed by "as we have set our hope on You." in the second system.

Reader: Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us ...

Choir: ... as we have set our hope on You, as we have set our hope on You!

as we have set our hope on You,
as we have set our hope on You.

The third system of music continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are "as we have set our hope on You," in the first system and "as we have set our hope on You." in the second system.

Epistle: (23) – Acts 9:32-43

Reader: The Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Deacon: Let us attend!

Reader: In those days, as Peter was traveling through all those regions, he also came down to visit the saints who lived in Lydda. There, he found a certain man named Aeneas, who was paralyzed and who had been bedridden for eight years. Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you! Get up and make your bed!" And immediately, he arose. All who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord. Now there lived in Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, (which, when translated means Gazelle). This woman was full of good works and acts of mercy. But it happened that at this time, she became ill and died. She was washed and placed in an upper room. As Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to help them. So Peter arose and went with them. When he arrived, the disciples led him into the upper room. All the widows stood by him weeping, showing Peter the coats and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. But having put everyone out of the room, Peter knelt down and began to pray. Turning toward the body, he said, "Tabitha, get up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. Then Peter gave her his hand and raised her up. Calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. This became known all over Joppa, and many people believed in the Lord.

Gospel: (14) – John 5:1-15

Priest: The reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John the Theologian.

Choir: Glory to You O Lord, Glory to You.

Priest: At that time: Jesus went up to Jerusalem. Now in Jerusalem, by the sheep gate, there is a pool with five porches called in Hebrew "Bethesda." Under these lay a great multitude of people who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water. For an angel went down at certain times into the pool, and stirred up the water. Then whoever stepped in first after the stirring of the water was made whole of whatever disease he had. A certain man was there, who had his illness for thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying there and perceived that the man had been sick for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to be made well?" The sick man replied, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I am coming, someone else steps down before me!" Jesus said to him, "Arise, take up your mat, and walk!" Immediately, the man was made well; he took up his mat and began to walk. Now it was the Sabbath on that day. And so, the Jews said to the man who had been cured, "It is the Sabbath! It is not lawful for you to carry the mat!" The man answered them, "He who made me well, that one said to me, 'Take up your mat, and walk.'" Then they asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Take up your mat, and walk?'" But the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn in the crowd that was there. Later, Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, "Behold, you have become well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse may happen to you!" The Jews begin to persecute Jesus. The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.
