v. (10) Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to Your name!

We glorify Your Resurrection on the third day, O Christ God,
by always honoring Your life-creating Cross;
by it You have renewed the corrupted nature of man
O almighty One.
By it You have renewed our entrance to heaven, //
for You are good and the Lover of man.

The musical score is written for a piano accompaniment and a vocal line. It consists of four systems of music. Each system has a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves (treble and bass clef). The key signature is one flat (B-flat major or D minor), and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are: "We glorify Your Resurrection on the third day, O Christ God, by always honoring Your life-creating Cross, by it You have renewed the corrupted nature of man, O Almighty One! By it, You have renewed our entrance to heaven, for You are good and the lover of man." The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the vocal melody. The vocal line is simple and clear, with some phrasing slurs and a final fermata on the word "man."

v. (9) The righteous will surround me; for You will deal bountifully with me.

You loosed the Tree's verdict of disobedience, O Savior, by being voluntarily nailed to the tree of the Cross.
By descending to Hades, O almighty God,
You broke the bonds of death.
Therefore, we adore Your Resurrection from the dead, singing in joy://
"Glory to You, O all powerful Lord!"

You loosed the tree's verdict of disobedience, O Sa - viour, by being voluntarily nailed to the tree of the Cross! By de-scend - ing to Hades O Al-might - y God, You broke the bonds of death!
 Therefore, we adore Your Resurrection from the dead, sing - ing in joy:
 Glory to You, O all pow - er - ful Lord!

v. (8) Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice!

You smashed the gates of Hades, O Lord,
 and by Your death You demolished the kingdom of death.
You delivered the human race from corruption,// granting the world life, incorruption and great mercy.

You smashed the gates of Ha - des, O Lord, and by Your death You demolished the king - dom of death! You de - livered the human race from cor - rup - tion, granting to the world life, incorruption and great mer - cy.

v. (7) Let Your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!

(Melody in Alto)

(for the Feast, by Germanus)

Come, let us greatly rejoice in the Lord,
as we tell of this present mystery:
the dividing wall has been destroyed; the flaming sword turns back
the Cherubim withdraw from the Tree of Life;
and I partake of the delights of Paradise:
from which I was cast out through disobedience
for the express image of the Father, the imprint of His eternity takes the form of a servant.
And without undergoing change He comes forth from an unwedded mother;
For what He was, He has remained: true God,
And what He was not, He has taken upon Himself,
Becoming man through love for mankind
Unto Him let us cry aloud
"O God, born of a Virgin, have mercy on us!"

(for the feast, by Anatolius)

When the Lord Jesus was born of the Holy Virgin,
 All the world was enlightened
 The shepherds watched in the fields.
 The Magi adored and the angels praised in song.
 But Herod was troubled,//

I did not receive it from man and I was not taught this Good News by man, but it came to me through a revelation of Jesus Christ. You have heard about how I used to live in Judaism, how I persecuted the Church of God beyond measure, and how I ravaged it. I advanced in the Jewish religion beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, as I was more extremely zealous for the traditions of my forefathers. But when it was the good pleasure of God (who had set me apart from my mother's womb and called me through his grace, to reveal his Son in me so that I might preach him among the Gentiles), I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood: I did not go up to Jerusalem to visit those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia. Later on, I returned to Damascus. Then, after three years, I did go up to Jerusalem to visit Peter, and I stayed with him for fifteen days. However, I did not see any of the other apostles, except James, 'the Lord's brother.'

Priest: When the Magi had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise! Take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him." So Joseph arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt. They remained there until the death of Herod, so that what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet might be fulfilled:

Out of Egypt I have called my son.

When Herod saw that he had been outwitted by the wise men, he became extremely angry. He dispatched his men and killed all the male children who lived in Bethlehem and all the surrounding countryside, two years old and under, according to the exact time which he had learned from the wise men. And so, what had been spoken by the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, weeping and great mourning:

Rachel weeping for her children.

She would not be comforted,

because they are no more.

But when Herod died, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream when he was in Egypt, saying: "Arise! Take the young child and his mother, and return to the land of Israel; those who were trying to kill the young child are dead."

Joseph arose and took the young child and his mother, and they came into the land of Israel. However, when Joseph heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in the place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Being warned in a dream, he withdrew into the region of Galilee. He thus arrived and lived in a city called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, "He will be called a Nazarene."

Choir: Glory to You O Lord, Glory to You.
