

"Lord I Call..." Tone 4

Reader: In the Fourth Tone, Lord, I call upon You, hear me!

Lord, I call upon You, hear me!

Hear me, O Lord!

Lord, I call upon You, hear me!

Receive the voice of my prayer,
when I call upon You!

Hear me, O Lord!

Let my prayer arise

in Your sight as incense,

and let the lifting up of my hands

be an evening sacrifice!

Hear me, O Lord!

Lord, I call upon You, hear me. Hear me, O Lord. Lord, I call upon You, hear me.

Receive the voice of my prayer when I call u - pon — You,

Hear — me, O Lord! Let my prayer a - rise in Your sight as in - cense, and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sac - ri - fice. Hear — me, O Lord!

v. (10) Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to Your name!

v. (9) The righteous will surround me; for You will deal bountifully with me.

v. (8) Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice!

Before Your Crucifixion, O Lord,
the mountain became as heaven,
and, like a tabernacle, the cloud spread itself out, when You were transfigured, and the Father bore witness to You.

Peter was present with James and John,

v. (4) From the morning watch until night, let Israel hope on the Lord!

The mountain that once was veiled in gloom and smoke,
is now holy and revered,
since Your feet, O Lord, had stood upon it.
For by Your dread Transfiguration,
the mystery hidden before the ages has been made manifest in the last times to Peter, James, and John.
Unable to endure the shining of Your face and the brilliance of Your garments, they fell to the ground upon their faces.
Seized with wonder and amazement, they saw Moses and Elijah talking with You about the things that would befall You;

and a voice came in testimony from the Father saying:
"This is My beloved Son in Whom I am well pleased; listen to Him!//
It is He Who grants the world great mercy!"

Detailed description: This is a musical score for two voice parts: Soprano/Alto and Tenor/Bass. The music is written in a key with one flat (B-flat major or D minor) and a common time signature. The lyrics are: "The mountain that once was veiled in gloom and smoke is now ho - ly and re - vered, since Your feet, O Lord, had stood up - on it. For by Your dread Trans - fig - u - ra - tion, the mystery hidden be - fore the ag - es has been made manifest in the last times to Peter, James, and John." The score consists of five systems of music. Each system has two staves: a soprano/alto staff (treble clef) and a tenor/bass staff (bass clef). The lyrics are placed between the staves. The music features various note values, rests, and phrasing slurs. The first system covers the first line of lyrics. The second system covers the second line. The third system covers the third line. The fourth system covers the fourth line. The fifth system covers the fifth line.

Old Testament Readings

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: The reading from the Second Book of Moses called Exodus. (Exodus 24:12-18)

Priest: Let us attend!

Reader: The Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tables of stone, the law and the commandments, which I have written for their instruction." When Moses had arisen, he and Jesus, who attended him, went up onto the mountain of God. And he said to the elders, "Wait here for us, until we come back to you again; and, see, Aaron and Or are with you; if anyone has a dispute, let them go to them." Then Moses went up onto the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of God came down on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days; and on the seventh day the Lord called Moses out of the midst of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the children of Israel. And Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. And he was there on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: The reading from the Second Book of Moses called Exodus. (Exodus 33:11-23; 34:4-6, 8)

Priest: Let us attend!

Reader: The Lord spoke to Moses face to face, as one speaks to one's friend. Then he would return to the camp; but the young servant, Joshua, son of Nun, did not leave the tent. Moses said to the Lord, "See, you say to me, 'Bring up this people'; but you have not shown me whom you will send with me. Yet you have said to me, 'I know you above all others, and you have also found favor in my sight.' Now if I have found favor in your sight, show yourself to me, so that I may see you and find favor in your sight, that I may know that this great nation is your people." And the Lord said to him, "I myself will go before you, and I will give you rest." And he said to him, "If you will not go with us yourself, do not carry me up from here. For how shall it be truly known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, unless you go with us? In this way, we shall be glorified, I and your people, more than all the nations." The Lord said to Moses, "For you I will do this word that you have spoken; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you above all others." Moses said, "Show me your own glory." And he said, "I will pass by you in my glory, and shall proclaim before you my name, 'The Lord'; and I will have mercy on those on whom I will have mercy, and will have pity on those on whom I will have pity." And he said, "You cannot see my face; for no human shall see my face and live." And the Lord said, "See, there is a place by me; stand on the rock. And while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back; but my face shall not be seen by you." So Moses rose early in the morning and went up on Mount Sinai, as the Lord had commanded him. The Lord descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name, "The Lord. The Lord passed before his face, and proclaimed, "The Lord, the Lord, God compassionate and merciful, slow to anger, and full of mercy and true". And Moses quickly bowed to the earth, and worshipped the Lord.

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: The Reading from Third Book of Kingdoms. (1 Kings 19: 3-9, 11-13, 15-16)

Priest: Let us attend!

Reader: And Elijah heard and was afraid; he arose and fled for his life, and came to Beersheba, in the land of Juda; he left his servant there. But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly someone touched him and said to him, "Arise and eat and drink, for you have a long journey." Elijah looked, and there at his head was a cake of flour and a jar of water. He arose, ate and drank, and slept again. The angel of the Lord came a second time, touched him, and said, "Arise and eat and drink, for you have a long journey." He arose, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to mount Horeb. There he entered a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the Lord. And behold, the Lord will pass by." And a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire the sound of a gentle breeze. And when Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood by the cave. Then the Lord said to him, "Go, return to your way and you shall come to the desert way of Damascus; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat as prophet in your place."

The Little Litany

Second Deacon: Again and again in peace let us pray to the Lord.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

Help us, save us, have mercy on us, and keep us, O God, by Your grace.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

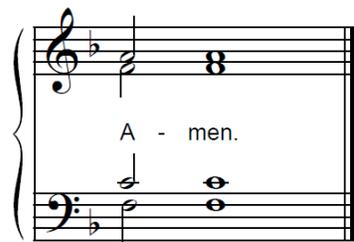

Commemorating our all-holy, most pure, most blessed, and glorious Lady Theotokos and Ever-virgin Mary with all the Saints, let us commend ourselves and each other, and all our life unto Christ our God.

Choir: To You, O Lord.

Priest: For holy are You, O our God, and unto You we ascribe glory: to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

The Trisagion Prayers

Reader: Holy God! Holy Mighty! Holy Immortal! Have mercy on us. (3x)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

O most-holy Trinity, have mercy on us!

O Lord, cleanse us from our sins!

O Master, pardon our transgressions!

O Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities, for Your name's sake!

Lord, have mercy. (3x)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

Priest: For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages.

Reader: Amen.

Tone 7 Troparion

You were transfigured on the mountain, O Christ God, revealing Your glory to Your Disciples as far as they could bear it.
Let Your everlasting Light also shine upon us sinners,
through the prayers of the Theotokos!//
O Giver of Light, glory to You!

The musical score is written for four voices: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. It is in a key with one flat (B-flat major or D minor) and a 4/4 time signature. The lyrics are: "You were trans-fig-ured on the mountain, O Christ God, revealing Your glory to Your disciples as far as they could bear it. Let Your ev - er - lasting Light also shine upon us sin - ners, through the prayers of the The - o - to - kos." The score consists of four systems of staves, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are placed below the vocal lines.

O Giv - er of Light, glo - ry to You!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages, amen.

Tone 7 Kontakion

On the mountain You were transfigured, O Christ God, and Your Disciples beheld Your glory as far as they could see it;
 so that when they would behold You crucified,
 they would understand that Your suffering was voluntary,
 and would proclaim to the world//
 that You are truly the Radiance of the Father.

Epistle: (65) 2 Peter 1:10-19

Deacon: Wisdom!

Reader:* The Reading from the Second General Epistle of the Holy Apostle Peter.

Deacon: Let us attend!

Reader: Brethren, do all that you can to make your calling and election assured. For if you do these things, you will never stumble. Thus, you will be richly granted the entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Therefore, I will not be negligent to remind you of these things although you already know them and are established in the truth which you now have. I think it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you of these things. I know that I shall lay aside my tent very quickly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me. And so, I will make every effort to ensure that you will always be able to remember these things, even after my departure. Certainly, we did not depend on cleverly invented fables when we told you about the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; we were eyewitnesses of his majesty! For he received from God the Father honor and glory when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." We heard this voice come out of heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

Therefore, we have the word of prophecy made even more certain, and you should pay attention to it as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star arises in your hearts.

Priest: † Peace to you who read.

Choir: And with your spirit.

Deacon: The reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew.

Choir: Glory to You O Lord, Glory to You.

Deacon: Let us Attend!

At that time, Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John his brother, and he brought them up into a high mountain by themselves. There, he was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his garments became as white as the light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with him.

Peter then said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here! If you want, let us make three tents here: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

While Peter was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them. And behold, a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him."

When the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were very afraid. Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Get up, and do not be afraid." Lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, except Jesus alone. As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus gave them this order: "Do not tell anyone what you saw, until the Son of Man has risen again from the dead."

Choir: Glory to You O Lord, Glory to You.

Communion Hymn

O Lord, we will walk in the light of Your countenance, and will exult in Your name forever. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

The image shows a musical score for a Communion Hymn. It consists of two systems of music. The first system is for Soprano/Alto and Tenor/Bass. The Soprano/Alto part is written in a soprano clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. The Tenor/Bass part is written in a bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The lyrics are: "O Lord, we will walk in the light of Your coun - te-". The second system continues the music and lyrics: "nance, and will ex - ult in Your name for - ev - er!". The music features a mix of quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, with some rests and phrasing slurs. The lyrics are aligned with the notes.

1. The heavens are Yours, the earth also is Yours; the world and all that is in it You have founded them.
2. The north and the south, You have created them; Tabor and Hermon joyously praise Your name.
3. You have a mighty arm; strong is Your hand, high Your right hand.
4. Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne; steadfast love and faithfulness go before You.
5. Blessed are the people who know the festal shout who walk, O Lord, in the light of Your countenance.
6. Who exult in Your name all the day, and extol Your righteousness.
7. For You are the glory of their strength; by Your favor our horn is exalted.
8. For our shield belongs to the Lord, our king to the Holy One of Israel.

Al - le - lu - i - a, al - le - lu - i -

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). It contains a vocal line with lyrics 'Al - le - lu - i - a, al - le - lu - i -'. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment.

a, al - le - lu - i - a.

The second system of music also consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the vocal line with lyrics 'a, al - le - lu - i - a.'. It features a complex rhythmic passage for the word 'lu' with sixteenth-note patterns, which are circled in the original image. The lower staff continues the harmonic accompaniment.
