v. (10) Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to Your name!

We offer to You, O Christ,
our evening song and reasonable service,
for You willed to have mercy on us//
by Your Resurrection.

We of - fer to You, O Christ, our evening song and reasonable ser - vice!

For You willed to have mer - cy on us by Your Re - sur - rec - tion!

v. (9) The righteous will surround me; for You will deal bountifully with me.

Lord, Lord, do not cast us away from Your face!
For You willed to have mercy on us//
by the Resurrection.

Lord, Lord, do not cast us a - way from Your face! For You willed to have mer - cy on us by the Re - sur - rec - tion!

v. (8) Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice!

Rejoice, holy Zion!
Mother of the churches, the abode of God!
For you were the first to receive remission of sins//
by the Resurrection.

Re-joice, O holy Zi - on! Mother of the churches, the a - bode of God!

For you were the first to re-ceive re - mis - sion of sins by the Re-sur-rec - tion!

v. (7) Let Your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!

The Word of God the Father, begotten before the ages,
 in the latter times willed to be incarnate of the Virgin and endured crucifixion unto death.
 He has saved mortal man//
 by His Resurrection.

The Word of God the Fa - ther, begotten before the a - - ges

in the latter times willed to be in - car - nate of the Vir - - gin and endured cruci-fi-xion un-to death. He has saved mor - tal man by His Re-sur-rec - tion!

v. (6) If You, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with You.

We glorify You, O Lord, for You voluntarily endured the Cross for our sake.
 We fall down in worship before You, almighty Savior.
 Do not cast us away from Your face

but hear us and save us, Lover of mankind//
by Your Resurrection!

We glo - ri - fy You, O Lord Who voluntarily endured the Cross for our sake.

We fall down in worship before You, O Al - migh - ty Sa - viour.

Do not cast us a - way from Your face, but hear us and save us, O Lo - ver of Man

by Your Re - sur - rec - tion!

v. (5) For Your name's sake I have waited for You, O Lord, my soul has waited for Your word; my soul has hoped on the Lord.

Glory to You, O Savior Christ, only begotten Son of God, nailed to the Cross// and resurrected from the tomb on the third day!

Glo - ry to You, O Sa - viour Christ, only-begotten Son of God Who were nailed to the Cross and resurrected from the tomb on the third day!

v. (4) In the Sixth Tone, From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch, let Israel hope on the Lord!

Tone 6 (from the Pentecostarion) (Having placed all their hope)

The Savior's inspired Disciples became instruments of the Spirit through faith.

They were scattered to the ends of the earth, sowing the glad tidings of the true faith.

From their divine garden the army of martyrs blossomed in grace.

They became images of Christ's saving Passion, enduring every kind of torture, scourging and fire.//

Now they boldly pray for our souls.

They became images of Christ's saving Pas - - sion, enduring every kind of torture, scourging and fire. Now they boldly pray for our souls.

v. (3) For with the Lord there is mercy and with Him is plenteous redemption, and He will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

The noble martyrs, burning with love of the Lord, laughed at the fires and were consumed as burning coals.
 Through Christ, they burned the withered arrogance of error.
 They stilled the roaring of beasts with the voice of their prayers.
 Beheaded, they decapitated the demonic hosts.//
 By the shedding of their own blood they watered the Church with faith.

v. (2) Praise the Lord, all nations! Praise Him, all peoples!

The heroic martyrs wrestled with beasts and were orn by their claws.
They were dismembered, slashed with swords, and shot with arrows;
they were consumed in the flames and pierced with lances.
All this they willingly endured, for already they saw their unfading crowns, and the glory of Christ, // before Whom they boldly pray for our souls.

v. (1) For His mercy is abundant towards us; and the truth of the Lord endures for ever.

Come, let us praise the heroes of our faith:
 Apostles, martyrs, holy priests, and noble women!
 They fought for the faith in every part of the earth.
 Though born of earth, they were united with the heavenly hosts.
 Through their sufferings, they triumphed over evil by the grace of Christ.
 As unfading lights, they illumine our hearts, // and with boldness they pray for our souls.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

Tone 6

O divine choir of martyrs, you are the pillars of the Church and the fulfillment of the Gospel.
 By your deeds you have fulfilled the Savior's words.
 You have closed the gates of hell and defended the Church.
 The shedding of your blood has dried up the libations poured out to idols.
 Your sacrifice has nourished the body of the faithful.
 Standing crowned before God, you amazed the Angels.//
 Pray unceasingly to Him that our souls may be saved!

In the Eighth Tone, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Tone 8 (Theotokion – Dogmatikon)

The King of heaven,
 because of His love for man,
 appeared on earth and dwelt with men.
 He took flesh from the pure Virgin and after assuming it, He came forth from her.
 The Son is one: in two natures, yet one Person.
 Proclaiming Him as perfect God and perfect Man,
 we confess Christ our God!!!
 Entreat him, O unwedded Mother, to have mercy on our souls!

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: The reading from the Prophecy of Isaiah. (Isaiah 43:9-14)

Priest: Let us attend!

Reader: Thus says the Lord: All the nations were gathered together, and rulers shall be gathered out of them. Who shall declare this, or who shall declare to you the things from the beginning? Let them bring their witnesses and let them be justified, and let them hear and say the truth. Be my witnesses, says the Lord, and I am a witness and my servant whom I have chosen, that you may know and believe and understand that I am. Before me there was no other, nor shall there be any after me. I am God, and besides me there is no savior. I declared and saved, I rebuked, and there was no strange god among you; and you are my witnesses. I am the Lord God, even from the beginning; there is none who can deliver from my hand; I shall work and who shall turn it back? Thus says the Lord, God who redeems you, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I will send to Babylon and I will rouse up all who flee and the Chaldæans shall be bound in ships.

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: The reading from the Wisdom of Solomon. (Wisdom of Solomon 3:1-9)

Priest: Let us attend!

Reader: The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment will touch them. In the eyes of fools they seemed to die and their departure was reckoned a disaster and their going from us their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of men they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself. Like gold in the furnace he tried them and like a whole burnt offering he accepted them. And in the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through stubble. They will judge nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them forever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones and visitation on his elect.

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: The reading from the Wisdom of Solomon. (Wisdom of Solomon 5:15-6:3)

Priest: Let us attend!

Reader: The just live forever, and their reward is with the Lord; the Most High takes care of them. Therefore they will receive a glorious crown and a beautiful diadem from the hand of the Lord, because with his right hand he will cover them, and with his arm he will shield them. He will take his zeal as his whole armor, and will arm all creation to repel his enemies; he will put on righteousness as a breastplate, and will wear impartial justice as a helmet; he will take holiness as an invincible shield, and sharpen stern wrath for a sword, and creation will join with him to fight against his frenzied foes. Shafts of lightning will fly with true aim, and will leap from the clouds to the target, as from a well-drawn bow, and hailstones full of wrath will be hurled as from a catapult; the water of the sea will rage against them, and rivers will relentlessly overwhelm them; a mighty wind will rise against them, and like a tempest it will winnow them away. Lawlessness will lay waste the whole earth, and evil-doing will overturn the thrones of rulers. Listen, therefore, O kings, and understand; learn, O judges of the ends of the earth. Give ear, you that rule over multitudes, and boast of many nations. For your dominion was given you from the Lord, and your sovereignty from the Most High.

Reader: Brethren, through faith, the saints overpowered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, became strong in weakness, grew mighty in war and caused foreign armies to flee.

Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection.

Others were tried by mocking and scourging, yes, by chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn apart, they were tempted and they were slain with the sword. They went around in sheep and goat skins, being destitute, afflicted, and ill-treated. And yet the world was not worthy of them! They wandered in deserts, mountains, caves, and the holes of the earth. All of them received a testimony through their faith but they did not receive the promise because God had made provision for us to have something better, and they were not to reach perfection apart from us.

And so, seeing that we are surrounded by such a great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us. Let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith.

Then Peter said, "Behold, we have left everything and followed you. What then will we have?"

Jesus said to them, "Amen, I tell you that you who have followed me, at the regeneration, when the Son of Man will sit on the throne of his glory, you also will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Everyone who has left houses, brothers, sisters, father, mother, wife, children, or lands for my Name's sake will receive a hundred times more and will inherit eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first!"
