

Priest: Blessed is the Kingdom of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages.

Reader: Amen.

Glory to You, our God; glory to You!

O Heavenly King, the Comforter, the Spirit of Truth, everywhere present and filling all things. Treasury of Blessings and Giver of Life, come and abide in us and cleanse us from every impurity and save our souls, O Good One!

The Trisagion Prayers

Holy God! Holy Mighty! Holy Immortal! Have mercy on us. (3x)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

O most-holy Trinity, have mercy on us!

O Lord, cleanse us from our sins!

O Master, pardon our transgressions!

O Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities, for Your name's sake!

Lord, have mercy. (3x)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

Priest: For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages.

Reader: Amen.

Lord, have mercy. (12x)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Reader: Come, let us worship God our King.

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ our King and our God.

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ Himself, our King and our God.

Come, let us worship and fall down before Him.

Psalm 103(4) is typically read (chanted) at Daily Vespers.

Reader: Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD my God, You are very great:

You are clothed with honor and majesty,

Who cover Yourself with light as with a garment,

Who stretch out the heavens like a curtain.

He lays the beams of His upper chambers in the waters,

Who makes the clouds His chariot,

Who walks on the wings of the wind,

Who makes His angels spirits,

His ministers a flame of fire.

You who laid the foundations of the earth,

So that it should not be moved forever,

You covered it with the deep as with a garment;

The waters stood above the mountains.

At Your rebuke they fled;

At the voice of Your thunder they hastened away.
They went up over the mountains;
They went down into the valleys,
To the place which You founded for them.
You have set a boundary that they may not pass over,
That they may not return to cover the earth.
He sends the springs into the valleys;
They flow among the hills.
They give drink to every beast of the field;
The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
By them the birds of the heavens have their home;
They sing among the branches.
He waters the hills from His upper chambers;
The earth is satisfied with the fruit of Your works.
He causes the grass to grow for the cattle,
And vegetation for the service of man,
That he may bring forth food from the earth,
And wine that makes glad the heart of man,
Oil to make his face shine,
And bread which strengthens man's heart.
The trees of the LORD are full of sap,
The cedars of Lebanon which He planted,
Where the birds make their nests;
The stork has her home in the fir trees.
The high hills are for the wild goats;
The cliffs are a refuge for the rock badgers.
He appointed the moon for seasons;
The sun knows its going down.
You make darkness, and it is night,
In which all the beasts of the forest creep about.
The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their food from God.
When the sun rises, they gather together
And lie down in their dens.
Man goes out to his work
And to his labor until the evening.
O LORD, how manifold are Your works!
In wisdom You have made them all.
The earth is full of Your possessions –
This great and wide sea,
In which are innumerable teeming things,
Living things both small and great.
There the ships sail about;
There is that Leviathan
Which You have made to play there.
These all wait for You,
That You may give them their food in due season.
What You give them they gather in;
You open Your hand, they are filled with good.
You hide Your face, they are troubled;
You take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.
You send forth Your Spirit, they are created;
And You renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
May the LORD rejoice in His works.
He looks on the earth, and it trembles;
He touches the hills, and they smoke.
I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.
May my meditation be sweet to Him;
I will be glad in the LORD.

May sinners be consumed from the earth,
And the wicked be no more.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!
The sun knows its going down.
You make darkness, and it is night,
O LORD, how manifold are Your works!
In wisdom You have made them all.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Glory to You, O God! (Twice)

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Glory to You, O God, O our God and our Hope, glory to You.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

For travelers by land, by sea, and by air, for the sick and the suffering, for captives, and their salvation, let us pray to the Lord.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

That we may be delivered from all affliction, wrath, danger, and necessity, let us pray to the Lord.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

Help us, save us, have mercy on us, and keep us, O God, by Your grace.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

Commemorating our most holy, most pure, most blessed, and glorious Lady Theotokos and Ever-virgin Mary with all the Saints, let us commend ourselves and each other, and all our life unto Christ our God.

Choir: To You O Lord.

Priest (Exclamation): For unto You are due all glory, honor, and worship, to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and to the ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

Lord, I Call (Tone 2)

Reader: In the Second Tone, Lord, I call upon You, hear me!

Lord, I call upon You, hear me!

Hear me, O Lord!

Lord, I call upon You, hear me!

Receive the voice of my prayer,

when I call upon You!

Hear me, O Lord!

Let my prayer arise

in Your sight as incense,

and let the lifting up of my hands

be an evening sacrifice!

Hear me, O Lord!

Lord, I call upon You, hear me. Hear me, O Lord.

Lord, I call upon You, hear me. Receive the voice of my prayer when I call u - pon You. Hear me, O Lord.

Let my prayer a - rise in Your sight as in - cense and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sac - ri - fice. Hear me, O Lord.

Lord, I Call . . . (continued)

Reader (chanted after the first sticharion is completed): Set, O Lord, a watch before my mouth, and a door of enclosure round about my lips.

Incline not my heart unto words of evil, to make excuse with excuses in sins, with men that work iniquity; and I will not join with their chosen.

The righteous man will chasten me with mercy and reprove me; as for the oil of the sinner, let it not anoint my head.

For yet more is my prayer in the presence of their pleasures; swallowed up near by the rock have their judges been.

They shall hear my words, for they be sweetened; as a clod of earth is broken upon the earth, so have their bones been scattered nigh unto hades.

For unto You, O Lord, O Lord, are my eyes, in You have I hoped; take not my soul away.

Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, and from the stumbling-blocks of them that work iniquity.

The sinners shall fall into their own net; I am alone until I pass by.

With my voice unto the Lord have I cried, with my voice unto the Lord have I made supplication.

I will pour out before Him my supplication, mine affliction before Him will I declare.

When my spirit was fainting within me, then You knew my paths.

In this way where I have walked they hid for me a snare.

I looked upon my right hand, and beheld, and there was none that knew me.

Flight has failed me, and there is none that watches out for my soul.

I have cried unto You, O Lord; I said: You are my hope, You are my portion in the land of the living.

Attend unto my supplication, for I am brought very low.

Deliver me from them that persecute me, for they are stronger than I.

(10) Bring my soul out of prison, that I may confess Your name.

(9) The righteous shall wait patiently for me until You shall reward me.

v. (8) Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice!

Come, let us greatly rejoice in the Lord,

as we sing of this present mystery:

the wall that divided God from man has been destroyed;

the flaming sword withdraws from Eden's gate;

the Cherubim withdraw from the Tree of Life;

and I, who had been cast out through my disobedience,

now feast on the delights of Paradise:

for today the Father's perfect Image, marked with the stamp of His eternity,

has taken the form of a servant.

Without undergoing change He is born from an unwedded mother;

He was true God, and He remains the same,

but through His love for mankind,

He has become what He never was: true man.

Come, O faithful, let us cry to Him://

"O God, born of the Virgin, have mercy on us!"

The image shows a musical score for the text "Come, let us greatly re-joyce in the Lord, as we sing of this present mys-ter-y:". The score is written on two staves, a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The melody is primarily composed of quarter and eighth notes, with some rests. The lyrics are placed between the two staves, aligned with the notes. The text "Come, let us greatly re-joyce in the Lord, as we sing of this present mys-ter-y:" is written in a serif font.

v. (6) If You, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with You.

When the Lord Jesus was born of the Holy Virgin,
 the whole universe was filled with light.
 The shepherds watched in the fields.
 The Wise Men worshipped, and the Angels sang.
 But Herod was troubled,
 for God had appeared in the flesh.//
 He is the Savior of our souls.

v. (4) From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch let Israel hope on the Lord.

Your Kingdom endures forever, O Christ our God.
 Your rule is from age to age.
 Made flesh by the Holy Spirit,
 made man of the ever-virgin Mary,
 You have filled all creation with joy.
 The light of Your coming has shone on us;
 every living creature praises You,

the Image of the Father's glory.
 Light of Light, the radiance of the Father,
 the same yesterday, today, and forever,
 You have shone forth from the Virgin.//
 O God, have mercy on us!

Your Kingdom endures forever, O Christ our God. Your rule is from age to age.

Made flesh by the Ho - ly Spir - it, made man of the ever - virgin Mar - y,

You have filled all cre - a - tion with joy. The light of Your coming has shone on us;

v. (2) Praise the Lord, all nations! Praise Him, all peoples!

What shall we offer You, O Christ,
Who for our sakes have appeared on earth as a man?
Every creature made by You offers You thanks:
the Angels offer a hymn; the heavens, a star;
the Wise Men, gifts; the shepherds, their wonder;
the earth, its cave; the wilderness, a manger,
and we offer You a virgin Mother!//

When Augustus ruled alone upon the earth,
 the many kingdoms of men came to an end,
 and when You were made man of the pure Virgin,
 the many gods of idolatry were destroyed.
 The cities of the world passed under one single rule,
 and the nations came to believe in one sovereign Godhead.
 The peoples were enrolled by the decree of Caesar,
 and we the faithful were enrolled in the name of the Godhead,
 When You, our God, were made man.
 Great is Your mercy, O Lord, glory to You!

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: The reading from the First Book of Moses, called Genesis. (Genesis 1:1-13)

Priest: Let us attend!

Reader: In the beginning God made the heaven and the earth. Now the earth was invisible and unformed, and darkness was upon the deep and the Spirit of God was borne upon the water. And God said, “Let there be light”, and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good; and God made a separation between the light and the darkness. And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night; and there was evening and there was morning, one day. And God said, “Let there be a firmament in the midst of the water and let there be a separation between the water and the water”; and it was so. And God made the firmament. And God made a separation between the water, which was below the firmament, and between the water which was above the firmament. And God called the firmament Heaven; and God saw that it was good, and there was evening and there was morning, a second day. And God said, “Let the water below heaven be gathered together into one gathering, and let dry land appear”; and it was so. And the water below heaven was gathered together into their gatherings, and the dry land appeared. And God called the dry land Earth, and the accumulations of the waters he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. And God said, “Let the earth sprout herb of grass, sowing seed according to its kind and according to its likeness, and fruiting tree making fruit, whose seed is in it according to its kind upon the earth”; and it was so. And the earth brought forth herb of grass, sowing seed according to its kind and according to its likeness, and fruiting tree making fruit, whose seed was in it according to its kind upon the earth, and God saw that it was good. And there was evening and morning, a third day.

Reader: The reading from the Fourth Book of Moses, called Numbers. (Num. 24:2-3, 5-9, 17-18)

Priest: Let us attend!

Reader: And the Spirit of God came upon Balaam, and he took up his discourse, and said, “How fair are your houses, O Jacob, your tents, O Israel. Like shady groves, like gardens beside a river, like tents that the Lord has planted, like cedar trees beside the waters. A man shall come forth from his seed and shall be lord over many nations, and his kingdom shall be exalted and increased. God led him out of Egypt; he has as it were the glory of the unicorn, he shall eat up the nations of his adversaries, and suck the marrow of their fat bones, and pierce the foe through with his arrows. He couched, he lay down like a lion, and like a young lion; who will rouse him? Blessed be everyone who blesses you, and cursed be everyone who curses you”. A star shall come forth out of Jacob, and a man shall rise out of Israel; and shall crush the princes of Moab, and plunder all the sons of Seth. Edom shall be an inheritance, Esau his foe shall be an inheritance, while Israel did valiantly.

Reader: The reading from the Prophecy of Micah. (Micah 4:6-7; 5:2-4)

Priest: Let us attend!

Reader: In those days, says the Lord, I will gather her that is bruised, and her that has been driven out I will receive, and those whom I have driven out; and her that has been bruised I will make into a remnant; and her that has been cast out into a strong nation; and the Lord shall reign over them in Mount Sion from this henceforth and for ever more. Thus says the Lord: And you Bethlehem, house of Ephratha, are not least among the thousands of Juda; for from you there shall come forth for me the one who is to be ruler in Israel, and his goings out are from the beginning, from eternity. Because of this he will give them until the moment that she who bears child shall bring to birth; and the remainder of his brethren shall return to the children of Israel. And he will stand and shall see, and shepherd his flock in the strength of the Lord, and they shall abide in the glory of the name of the Lord his God; for now they shall be magnified even to the extremities of the earth.

(Then we stand and sing the following troparion. The reader chants the verses and the choir responds.)

Tone 6

Troparion

You were born secretly in the cave, but heaven spoke through a star and proclaimed You to all, O Savior.
And it brought Magi, who worshipped You with faith;
have mercy upon them and upon us!

The musical score is written in a two-staff system (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is primarily composed of quarter and eighth notes, with some rests. The lyrics are placed below the notes, with some words like 'Thee' and 'You' appearing above the notes in the vocal line. The score is divided into four systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line.

v: His foundations are in the holy mountains. The Lord loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

And it brought Magi, who worshipped You with faith;
have mercy upon them and upon us!

This musical score is a continuation of the previous one, written in the same two-staff system (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one flat. It contains the lyrics for the second system of the troparion.

And it brought Ma - gi, who wor - shipped Thee
You

with faith;

have mercy u - pon them and u - pon us!

v: Glorious things are spoken of you, O City of God. I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to those who know Me.

And it brought Magi, who worshipped You with faith;
have mercy upon them and upon us!

And it brought Ma - gi, who wor - shipped Thee with faith;

have mercy u - pon them and u - pon us!

v: Behold, O Philistia and Tyre and the people of Ethiopia!

And it brought Magi, who worshipped You with faith;
have mercy upon them and upon us!

And it brought Ma - gi, who wor - shipped Thee with faith;

have mercy u - pon them and u - pon us!

v: "This one was born there," And of Zion it will be said, "This one and that one were born in her, and the Most High Himself shall establish her."

And it brought Magi, who worshipped You with faith;
have mercy upon them and upon us!

And it brought Ma - gi, who wor - shipped Thee with faith;
 You

And the Spirit of the Lord God shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and strength, the spirit of knowledge and piety. The spirit of the fear of the Lord will fill him. He shall not judge by glory nor reprove by hearsay; but he will give judgement for the lowly with justice, and reprove with equity the glorious ones of the earth; and he shall smite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall destroy the wicked. And he will have his loins girt with righteousness, and his sides clothed with truth. Then the wolf shall feed with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the bull and the lion shall feed together, and a little child shall lead them. The ox and the bear shall feed together; their young shall be together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. An infant child shall put its hand over the hole of asps, and the weaned child its hand on the nest of the offspring of asps. They shall not hurt or be able to destroy anyone on my holy mountain; for the whole earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord as much water covers the sea. In that day there shall be the root of Jesse, and he that shall arise to rule nations; in him shall the nations hope, and his rest shall be honor.

Priest: Let us attend!

Reader: This is our God, and there shall be none other reckoned in comparison with him. He has found out all the way of knowledge, and given it to Jacob his servant and Israel his beloved. After this he appeared on earth and lived among men. This is the book of the commandments of God, and the law which exists unto the ages; all those who keep it fast shall have life; but those who abandon it shall die. Turn back Jacob, and lay hold of it, walk in the presence of its light to be illumined. Do not give your glory to another, and what is profitable to you to a foreign nation.

Reader: The reading from the Prophecy of Daniel. (Daniel 2:31-36, 44-45)

Priest: Let us attend!

Reader: Daniel said to Nebuchadnezzar, “You saw, O king, and behold, a great image. This image, mighty and of exceeding brightness, stood before you, and its appearance was lightening. The head of this image was of pure gold, its hands, breast and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze, its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay. As you looked, a stone was cut out from a mountain by no human hand, and it smote the image on its feet of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces; then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold, all together were broken in pieces, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth. This was the dream; now we shall tell the king its interpretation. The God of heaven will set up a kingdom that shall never be destroyed, nor shall this kingdom be left to another people. It shall crush all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, and it shall stand unto the ages; just as you saw that a stone was cut from the mountain not by hands, and that it crushed the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold. The great God has informed the king what shall be hereafter. The dream is certain, and its interpretation trustworthy”.

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: The reading from the Prophecy of Isaiah. (Isaiah 9: 6-7)

Priest: Let us attend!

Reader: A child has been born for us, a son has been given to us; whose government is upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called "Angel of Great Counsel, Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Potentate, Prince of Peace, Father of the age to come". For I will bring peace upon princes, peace and health to him. Great his government, and of his peace there is no bound, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with judgement and with justice from henceforth and for ever more. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Reader: The reading from the Prophecy of Isaiah. (Isaiah 7:10-16 & 8:1-4, 8-10)

Priest: Let us attend!

Reader: Again the Lord spoke to Ahaz, “Ask a sign of the Lord your God; in the depth or in the height”. But Ahaz said, “I will not ask, and I will not put the Lord to the test”. And Isaiah said, “Hear then, O house of David . Is it a little thing for you to contend with men, and how do you contend with the Lord? Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel. He shall eat butter and honey before he knows how to prefer evil or choose good. For before the child knows good or evil, he refuses the evil to choose the good. Then the Lord said to me, ‘Take for yourself a large new volume and write upon it in with a man’s pen, Of making a rapid plunder of spoils; for it is at hand. And get me witnesses, reliable men, Urias the priest and Zachary the son of Barachias’. And I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then the Lord said to me, ‘Call his name Despoil-quickly-plunder-rapidly; for before the child knows how to cry ‘Father’ or ‘Mother,’ he will take the power of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria before the king of the Assyrians’. Know you nations and be wasted; give ear, as far as the extremity of the earth; for if again you have become strong, again you shall be wasted. And whatever counsel you take, the Lord will scatter it; and whatever word you speak, it shall not remain in you, for God is with us”.

The Little Litany

Second Deacon: Again and again in peace let us pray to the Lord.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

Help us, save us, have mercy on us, and keep us, O God, by Your grace.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

Commemorating our all-holy, most pure, most blessed, and glorious Lady Theotokos and Ever-virgin Mary with all the Saints, let us commend ourselves and each other, and all our life unto Christ our God.

Choir: To You, O Lord.

Priest: For holy are You, O our God, and unto You we ascribe glory: to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

The Trisagion Prayers

Reader: Holy God! Holy Mighty! Holy Immortal! Have mercy on us. (3x)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

O most-holy Trinity, have mercy on us!

O Lord, cleanse us from our sins!

O Master, pardon our transgressions!

O Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities, for Your name's sake!

Lord, have mercy. (3x)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

Priest: For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages.

Reader: Amen.

Epistle: (303) Hebrews 1:1-12

Reader/Second Deacon: The reading from the Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Hebrews.

First Deacon: Let us attend!

Reader: Brothers and sisters, in the past, God spoke to the fathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways. At the end of these days, he has spoken to us in his Son whom he has appointed heir of all things and through whom he had made the ages. His Son is the radiance of his glory, the exact counterpart of his person, upholding all things by the word of his power. When he had by himself made purification for our sins, he sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become much better than the angels as the Name he has inherited is superior to theirs. For to which of the angels did God ever say:

You are my Son! Today I have become your father!

and again:

I will be a Father to him, and he will be a Son to me?

Also, when he brings the firstborn into the world, God says:

“Let all the angels of God express adoration to him.”

Of the angels, God says:

Who makes his angels spirits, and his servants a flame of fire;

but of the Son he says:

Your throne O God is unto ages of ages!

The scepter of justice is the scepter of your Kingdom.

You have loved righteousness and hated iniquity;

therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your companions.

You, Lord, in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth. The heavens are the works of your hands.

They will perish, but you continue. They all will grow old as a garment,

As a mantle, you will roll them up, and they will be changed;

but you are the same. Your years will not fail.

Priest: † Peace be to you.

Second Deacon/Reader: And to your spirit. In the 5th Tone, Alleluia! The Lord said to My Lord: “Sit at My right hand until I make Your enemies Your footstool!”

Gospel: (5) Luke 2:1-20

Priest: Illumine our hearts, O Master, Who loves mankind, with the pure light of Your divine knowledge. Open the eyes of our mind to the understanding of Your gospel teachings. Implant also in us the fear of Your blessed commandments that trampling down all carnal desires, we may enter upon a spiritual manner of living, both thinking and doing such things that are well pleasing to You. For You are the illumination of our souls and bodies, O Christ our God, and to You we ascribe glory, together with Your Father, Who is from everlasting, and Your all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Second Deacon: Wisdom! Let us attend! Let us hear the Holy Gospel.

Priest (facing the people): † Peace be unto all.

Choir: Glory to You, O Lord, glory to You.

Glory to You, O Lord, glo-ry to You!

Second Deacon/Priest: Let us attend!

In those days, Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. This was the first census made when Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to enroll themselves, everyone to his own city. Because he was of the house and family of David, Joseph left the city of Nazareth in Galilee and went up to Judea, to the city of David which is called Bethlehem. He did so to enroll himself with Mary who was pledged to be married to him as wife and who was pregnant.

While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. She gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in swaddling clothes. She laid him in a manger because there was no room for them in the inn.

There were shepherds in the same countryside, staying in the field and keeping watch by night over their flock. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. The angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you Good News of great joy which will be for all the people. For there is born to you, this day, in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord!

This is the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a manger." Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying:

*Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace, and good will among mankind.*

When the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go to Bethlehem now and see what has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." They came with haste and found both Mary and Joseph; and the baby was lying in the manger. After seeing it, they revealed the news which had been spoken to them about this child. All those who heard what the shepherds were saying were amazed, but Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things which they had heard and seen, just as it was told them.

Choir: Glory to You, O Lord, glory to You.

A sermon is offered.

Begin the Liturgy of St. Basil the Great with the Augmented Litany, p. 205

Instead of "It is truly meet ..." we sing: The Hymn to the Theotokos

People: All of creation rejoices in you, O Full of Grace.
The assembly of angels and the race of men.
O sanctified temple and spiritual paradise. The glory of virgins,
From whom God was incarnate and became a child:
Our God before the ages. He made your body into a throne,
And your womb He made more spacious than the heavens,
All of creation rejoices in you,
O Full of Grace, glory to you!

The musical score is written for a two-part setting (Soprano and Bass) in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of six systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are printed below the vocal line of each system. The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the vocal melody. The lyrics are: "All of cre - a - tion re - joic - es in you, O Full of Grace. The as - sem - bly of an - gels and the race of men. O sanc - ti - fied tem - ple and spir - i - tual par - a - dise. The glor - y of vir - gins, from whom God was in - carn - ate and be - came a child: our God be - fore the a - ges. He made your bo - dy in - to a throne, and your womb He made more spa - cious than the hea - vens. All of cre - a - tion re - joic - es in you, O Full of Grace, Glor - y to you!"

Communion Hymn

As the priest prepares his communion, and the communion for the faithful, the Choir sings the communion hymn.

The Lord has sent redemption to His people. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

The musical score for the first system of the Communion Hymn. It features a treble and bass clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "The Lord has sent re - demp - tion to His peo - - - ple!".

1. I will confess You, O Lord, with my whole heart in the council of the upright and in the congregation.
2. Great are the works of the Lord, sought out in all the things that He has willed.
3. Confession and majesty are His work, and His righteousness abides unto ages of ages.
4. He made a remembrance of His wondrous deeds; merciful and compassionate is the Lord; He has given food to them that fear Him.
5. He will be mindful forever of His covenant; the power of His works has He declared unto His people.
6. That He may give them the inheritance of the nations; the works of His hands are truth and judgement.
7. Faithful are all His commandments, confirmed unto ages of ages, made in truth and uprightness.
8. He has sent redemption to His people, He has enjoined His covenant forever; holy and terrible is His name.
9. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; and all they that foster this have a good understanding.
10. His praise abides unto ages of ages.
11. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

The above is repeated as necessary, or other hymns may be sung, until the priest picks up the chalice and exits the Holy Doors.

Then, the Choir sings:

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

The musical score for the second system of the Communion Hymn. It features a treble and bass clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "Al - le - lu ia, Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - - - ia!".

(Immediately after the Dismissal the clergy go to the center of the church where the icon of the feast has been placed. The Troparion and the Kontakion of the feast are sung.)

Tone 4

Troparion

Your Nativity, O Christ our God, has shone to the world the light of wisdom!
For by it, those who worshipped the stars,
were taught by a star to adore You,
the Sun of righteousness,
and to know You, the Orient from on high.//
O Lord, glory to You!

The musical score is written for four voices: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. It is in the key of B-flat major (one flat) and 4/4 time. The lyrics are: "Your Nativity, O Christ our God, has shone to the world the Light of wisdom! For by it, those who worshipped the stars, were taught by a star to adore You, the Sun of Righteousness, and to know You, the Orient from on High. O Lord, glory to You!" The score consists of five systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The piano accompaniment is primarily chordal, with some melodic lines in the bass. The lyrics are placed below the vocal lines, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across two notes.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages, amen.
