Reader: In the Sixth Tone, Lord I call upon You, hear me!

Lord, I call upon You, hear me!
Hear me, O Lord!
 Lord, I call upon You, hear me!
 Receive the voice of my prayer,

 Hear me, O Lord!

Let my prayer arise

 be an evening sacrifice!//
 Hear me, O Lord!

Lord, I call upon You, hear me. Hear me, O Lord! Lord, I call upon You, hear me; re - ceive the voice of my prayer when I call u - pon You.

Hear me, O Lord! Let my prayer a - rise

Priest: Wisdom

Reader: The reading from Genesis. (49:1-2, 8-12)

Priest: Let us Attend!

Reader: Jacob called his sons and said to them, "Gather around, that I may tell you what will happen to you in the last days. Assemble together and hear me, sons of Jacob; hear Israel, hear your father.

"Judah, your brothers will praise you, and your hands will be on the backs of your enemies; your father's sons will bow down before you.

"Judah is a lion's cub. From a tender shoot, my son, you have gone up. He crouches down, he stretches out like a lion, like a cub. Who will wake him?

"A ruler will not be lacking from Judah, nor a leader from his thighs, until the things prepared for him have come. He is the expectation of the nations.

"Binding his foal to the vine, and his donkey's colt to the branch, he will wash his robe in wine, and his cloak in the blood of the grape. His eyes are more cheering than wine, and his teeth are whiter than milk."

Priest: Wisdom

Reader: The reading from the Prophecy of Zephaniah. (3:14-19)

Priest: Let us Attend!

Reader: The Lord says: Rejoice, O daughter of Zion! Proclaim, O daughter of Jerusalem! Be glad, and exult with your whole heart, O daughter of Jerusalem! The Lord has taken away your sins; he has ransomed you from the hand of your enemies. The Lord, the King of Israel, is among you. You will not see evil anymore. Then the Lord will say to Jerusalem, "Be of good courage, O Zion! Do not let your hands grow weak. The Lord your God is among you; the Mighty One will save you. He will bring you joy, and will refresh you with his love. He will rejoice over you with delight as on a feast day. And I will gather your afflicted ones. Alas! Who has taken up a reproach against you? Behold, I will work in you for your sake at that time, and I will save the oppressed, and receive the rejected. I will make them praised and honored in all the earth.

Priest: Wisdom

Reader: The reading from the Prophecy of Zechariah. (9:9-15)

Priest: Let us Attend!

Reader: Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king is coming to you in justice, bringing salvation. He is meek and riding on a donkey, on a young foal. He will destroy the chariots out of Ephraim, and the war horse out of Jerusalem, and the bow of war will be utterly destroyed. Peace will abound among the nations. He will rule over the waters as far as the sea, and the rivers to the ends of the earth. And as for you, by the blood of my covenant with you, I will free your prisoners from the waterless pit. You will dwell in fortresses, you prisoners of the congregation. For each day of your exile, I will repay you double. I have bent you, O Judah, as a bow for myself. I have filled Ephraim, and I will raise up your children, O Zion, against the children of the Greeks; I will handle you like a warrior's sword. Then the Lord will appear over them, and his arrow will fly as lightning. The Lord Almighty will blow the trumpet, and will proceed with the roar of his threatening. The Lord Almighty will protect them.

Reader: The Reading from the Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Philippians.

Deacon: Let us attend!

Reader: Brothers and sisters, Rejoice in the Lord always! Again I will say, rejoice! Let your kindness be known to all. The Lord is at hand! Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are commendable, if there is any virtue or any praise, think about these things. What you learned, received, heard, and saw in me – practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

Deacon/Priest: The reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John the Theologian.

Choir: Glory to You O Lord, Glory to You.

Deacon/Priest: Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany where Lazarus (who had been dead and whom Jesus had raised from the dead) lived. Therefore, they gave a supper for him there. Martha served while Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him. Then Mary took a pound of fragrance of pure nard, very precious; she anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. Then Judas Iscariot, Simon’s son, one of his disciples and the one who would betray him, said, “Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?” Now Judas said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, he used to steal what was put into it. But Jesus said, “Leave her alone! She has kept this for the day of my burial. For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.”

Meanwhile, a large crowd of the Jews learned that Jesus was there. They came, not only for Jesus’ sake, but also in order to see Lazarus whom he had raised from the dead. The chief priests even conspired to put Lazarus to death as well, because on his account many of the Jews were going over to Jesus and believed in him.

On the next day, a great multitude had come to the feast. When they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, they took branches from palm trees and went out to meet him, crying out, “Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the Name of the Lord, the King of Israel!”

Having found a young donkey, Jesus sat on it. As it is written:

“Do not be afraid, daughter of Zion!

Behold, your King is coming, sitting on a donkey’s colt.

His disciples did not understand these things at first, but after Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him, and that they had done these things to him. Now the multitude that had been with Jesus when he had called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to testify about it. For this reason also, the crowd had come out to meet him, because they had heard that he had done this sign.

Choir: Glory to You O Lord, Glory to You.

Sermon

(then p. 89)

(Instead of "It is truly meet ...," we sing the Hirmos of the 9th Ode of the Canon:)

God is the Lord and has revealed Himself to us!
Celebrate the feast and come with gladness!
Let us magnify Christ with palms and branches, singing: "Blessed is He that comes in the Name of the Lord!"

God is the Lord and has re - vealed Him - self to us!

The first system of music consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff has a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a common time signature. The melody is written in a simple, homophonic style with quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics are placed below the notes. The bass staff provides a simple accompaniment with quarter notes.

Cel - ebrate the feast and come with glad - ness! Let us magnify

The second system of music continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are placed below the notes. The treble staff has a fermata over the note for "ness!".

Christ with palms and branch - es, sing - ing:

The third system of music continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are placed below the notes. The treble staff has a fermata over the note for "es,".

"Blessed is He that comes in the name_ of the Lord!"

The fourth system of music concludes the hymn. The lyrics are placed below the notes. The treble staff has a fermata over the note for "name_".

Communion Hymn

Blessed is He that comes in the Name of the Lord! God is the Lord and has revealed Himself to us!
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Soprano
Alto

Tenor
Bass

Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, God is the Lord and has re - vealed Him - self, re - vealed Him - self to us.

The musical score is written for four voices: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. It consists of four systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (Soprano/Alto or Tenor/Bass) and a piano accompaniment line. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are: "Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, God is the Lord and has re - vealed Him - self, re - vealed Him - self to us."

1. Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them and give thanks to the Lord.
2. This is the gate of the Lord; the righteous shall enter through it.
3. I thank You that You have answered me and hast become my salvation.
4. The stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner. This is the Lord's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.
5. This is the day which the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it!
6. Save us, we beseech You, O Lord! O Lord, we beseech You, give us success!
7. God is the Lord and has revealed Himself to us. Bind the festal procession with branches, up to the horns of the altar!
8. You are my God, and I will give thanks to You; You are my God, I will extol You.

When the priest emerges with the gifts, then the Alleluia is sung:

Al - le - lu - i - a, al - le - lu - i - a, al - le - lu - i - a.

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of two systems. The first system contains the first two phrases of the Alleluia: 'Al - le - lu - i - a, al - le - lu - i - a,'. The second system contains the final phrase: 'al - le - lu - i - a.'. The vocal line is in the treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass clef. The piano part features a steady bass line and chords that support the vocal melody. In the second system, there are two ovals highlighting specific melodic passages in the vocal line: one over the notes 'lu - i' and another over the notes 'i - a.'. The piano accompaniment in the second system consists of sustained chords.
