Reader: In the Second Tone, Lord, I call upon You, hear me!

Lord, I call upon You, hear me!
Hear me, O Lord!
Lord, I call upon You, hear me!
Receive the voice of my prayer,
when I call upon You!//
Hear me, O Lord!

Let my prayer arise

and let the lifting up of my hands
be an evening sacrifice!//
Hear me, O Lord!

v. (10) Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to Your name!

Come, let us worship the Word of God
begotten of the Father before all ages,
and incarnate of the Virgin Mary!
Having endured the Cross,
He was buried as He himself desired.//
And having risen from the dead, He saved me, an erring man.

The musical score is written for piano accompaniment in a two-staff system (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The melody is primarily composed of chords, with some single notes in the bass line. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff. The score is divided into four systems, each corresponding to a line of the hymn text. The final system ends with a double bar line.

Come, let us worship the Word of God begotten of the Father before all a - ges, and in - car - nate of the Vir - gin Ma - ry! Having en - dured the Cross
He was buried as He Him - self de - sired!
And, having risen from the dead, He saved me an err - ing man.

v. (9) The righteous will surround me; for You will deal bountifully with me.

Christ our Savior
nailed to the Cross the bond against us,
He voided it and destroyed the dominion of death.//
We fall down before His Resurrection on the third day.

Christ our Sa - viour nailed to the Cross the bond a - gainst us,

He void - ed it and destroyed the do - min - ion of death!

We fall down before His Resurrection on the third day!

v. (8) Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice!

He is coming with awesome glory and mighty power// to judge the world which He made.

v. (7) Let Your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!

The Angel proclaimed You
 the crucified and buried Master.
 He told the women: "Come, see the place where He lay!
 He is risen as He said,
 for He is almighty."
 We worship You, O only immortal One.//
 Have mercy on us O Christ, the Giver of life!

v. (6) In the Same Tone, If You, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with You.

Tone 2(from the Pentecostarion, by Anatolius)*

Early in the morning, the myrrhbearing women brought spices to the tomb of the Lord.
 They found the stone unexpectedly rolled away,
 and they asked among themselves:

"Where are the seals of the tomb?"

Where are Pilate's guards?"

The radiant Angel came to the wondering women and proclaimed to them:

"Why do you seek with tears the Life Who gives life to the human race?"

Christ our God has risen from the dead as almighty,// granting us incorruption, life, enlightenment, and great mercy!"

v. (5) For Your Name's sake I wait for You, O Lord. My soul has waited for Your word; my soul has hoped on the Lord.

O women disciples,
 why do you mingle myrrh with your tears?
 The stone is gone; the tomb is empty.
 Behold, corruption destroyed by life!
 The seals witness that the guards of the godless have watched in vain.
 Mortal nature has been saved by the flesh of God.
 Hell is wailing.
 Go with joy, and proclaim to the Apostles:
 "Christ has slain death as the first-born of the dead.//
 He awaits you in Galilee!"

v. (2) Praise the Lord, all nations! Praise Him, all peoples!

The women came with fear to the tomb,
 hastening to anoint Your body with sweet spices.

Go, proclaim the glad tidings to His disciples!”

Joseph, together with Nicodemus, took You down from the Tree,

 He gazed on Your body – dead, naked, and unburied,
 and, in grief and tender compassion, he lamented:

 The earth quaked in fear at the sight.
 The veil of the Temple was torn in two.
 Lo, now I see You willingly submit to death for our sake.
How shall I bury You, O my God?
How can I wrap You in a shroud?
 How can I touch Your most pure body with my hands?

Reader: In those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, a complaint arose from the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily service of food distribution.

The Twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, “It is not appropriate for us to abandon the word of God in order to serve tables. Therefore, select from among you, brethren, seven men of good reputation, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom. We will appoint them over this necessary task and devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.”

These words pleased the whole multitude, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch. They presented these men to the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them. Thus, the word of God spread and the number of disciples greatly multiplied in Jerusalem, and a large number of Jews became obedient to the faith.

Priest: At that time, Joseph of Arimathea (a prominent council member who was also looking for the Kingdom of God), came forward. He boldly went in to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body. Pilate wondered if Jesus was already dead. Calling the centurion, he asked him whether Jesus had been dead for a long time. Having been assured of this by the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. Accordingly, Joseph bought fine linen, took Jesus down and wrapped him in the linen cloth. Having placed him in a tomb which had been cut out of a rock, he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of James, saw where Jesus had been laid. When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices in order to come and anoint him. Very early on the first day of the week, they arrived at the tomb when the sun had risen. They were saying among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?" But when they looked up, they saw that the stone was already rolled back, although it was extremely large. Entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were amazed. He said to them, "Do not be amazed! You seek Jesus the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has risen! He is not here! Behold, the place where they laid him! But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He goes before you into Galilee. There you will see him, as he told you.'" They went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had come upon them. They said nothing to anyone because they were afraid.

8. Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of the earth! Young men and maidens together, old men and children!
9. Let them praise the Name of the Lord, for His Name alone is exalted; His glory is above earth and heaven.
10. He has raised up a horn for His people, praise for all His saints, for the people of Israel who are near to Him. Praise the Lord!
